MARCH HOT TOPICS!

Review and Notification Timeline
Applications submitted to AHA in January and February will be reviewed throughout April. Research Committees will meet in May to make allocation decisions.

Applicants and Grant Officers will receive an email from Grants@Heart around Memorial Day instructing you to log into your account to view critiques, scores and funding decisions. Sponsors will be copied on messages to fellowship applicants.

If you plan to resubmit in July
Current applicants should await spring peer review outcomes before initiating a resubmission in Grants@Heart for the July deadlines. In the meantime, you can work on revising your proposed research plan and gather required letters and other documents to upload once you start your resubmission in Grants@Heart.

Peer Reviewers
- Rosters of the Spring 2010 Peer Review Study
  Section members will be posted the week of March 22nd at http://www.americanheart.org/presenter.jhtml?identifier=3004143

- SUBMIT your critiques to Grants@Heart 3-7 days before your meeting (according to your chairperson’s request). The SAVE button allows you to access and edit a critique; SUBMIT enters it into Grants@Heart.

Next Application Deadline is July 2010

AHA Call for Abstract Submissions
AHA encourages awardees to submit the results of their work for presentation at our professional meetings. Upcoming meetings with abstract opportunities are:
· Training documents and instructions will be shared with all reviewers as we move through the peer review process.

· New AHA reviewers are urged to join one of the many upcoming teleconference training sessions. Your assigned AHA staff person will send you the final list of training session dates.

Fiscal Officers
Financial report forms will be available 90 days prior to the report due date. Grants@Heart will send an email notice to the fiscal officer when the form is active.

Awardees
· New Awardees - January 2010 awardees' IRB and IACUC approvals are due by March 31st. Failure to meet this deadline may result in administrative withdrawal of your award.

· Financial report forms will be available for your fiscal officer to complete 90 days prior to the report due date. Your fiscal officer will complete the report and will submit it to you. Awardees should review fiscal reports and then click “submit”.
