A complete application:
- The PI is prevented from submitting until all sections/parts of the IRB application are complete (as denoted by green checkmarks).

The full IRB Application:
- Consent Form templates are tailored specifically to each application, but are not presented until all preceding sections are complete.
- An application is considered "full" even if Part B is suppressed (i.e., response to Screening Q #2 is No).

Exempt Request
- Consent forms are neither required nor present.
