

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
IACUC Training Record

Mice: Handling and Basic Techniques

ASK YOUR PI or LAC WHAT TECHNIQUES YOU NEED BEFORE CLASS!

Technique needed?*	Technique	Comments
	Handling and Restraint
	Intraperitoneal Injection
	Subcutaneous Injection
	Oral Gavage
	Ear Notch (punch)
	Ear Tag
	Submandibular Bleed
	Intramuscular Injection
	Intravenous Injection
	Tail Nick Bleed
	Tail Clip Bleed /Genotyping
	Anesthesia Injectables
	Cardiac Puncture, terminal
	CO ₂ Flow meter w/ Phys. Euthanasia
	Retro-orbital Bleed	Individual appointment during class Training provided only if included within animal protocol
	Retro-orbital Injection	Individual appointment during class Training provided only if included within animal protocol
	Cervical Dislocation without Anesthesia	Individual appointment during class Training provided only if included within animal protocol
	Decapitation without Anesthesia	Individual appointment during class Training provided only if included within animal protocol
Isoflurane Euthanasia / Anesthesia Drop Method		*Provided during a 1-on-1 training session. Please call the OACU to schedule an appointment 966-5569
	Inhalational Anesthesia Vaporizer Machine	Contact DLAM Vet Services at 966-2906
	Proficiency Rating	I II III

I certify that I have received the above training:

Signature: _____
Print Name: _____
Instructor Signature: _____

PID: _____
PI: _____
Date: _____